Call for submission
Deadline: May the 31st 2014

Our Festival features a selection of the best adventure films from around the world. We will cast our programming around environment-focused, sport based, motivating, and/or inspiring picture to depict the meaning of Adventure on the screens.

If you have a film, or, even better, if you are willing to present your new production within spectacular scenarios we are very interested in hearing from you.

We require 5 to 25 minute films to be admitted to the competition. If you have slightly longer or shorter edits we would be glad to review it for programming but it will not be eligible for awards.

We accept films in English or Italian with or without subtitles. For any other language we need the English or Italian subtitles.

We are willing to consider a dedicated screening for full-length movies, especially if they are a prime or if you are willing to present them in person or through one of your athletes in San Candido – Innichen.

The Three Peaks award winner will receive 1000 Euro prize.

PRIZES / AWARDS /DISTINCTIONS

We have a jury composed of seven (7) members who view all films screened at Adventure Outdoor Fest and provide the winners and the awards.

The Jury will provide the winners and the awards, in a strictly confidential form, by the 5th of July.

The Jury is built to be able to analyze all the Adventure Films aspects, and includes professional sports photographers, Athletes and Academics.

As members of the Jury will be happy to announce Alessandro Belluscio, one of the most acclaimed Italian Freestyle photographers; Olaf Crato, Photographer originally from Hawaii and now living in Germany; Professor Alberto Boschi, University of Ferrara and the Skier-Slackliner Armin Holzer and three other members to be announced soon.

The winners will be immediately contacted in order to discuss either their arrival in San Candido – Innichen for the Ceremony or will be asked to provide a short video to substitute their presence at the Ceremony. If the winner does not reply within 5 working days from the notification the prize will be automatically assigned to the second in the ranking.

The categories will be:

-ThreePeaks Best Movie

the prize will consist of 1000 Euro and the possibility to have logistic support for 4 days if you decide to film in the area of San Candido-Innichen within 10 months from the prize.

-New Adventurer Award

the prize for newcomers in the industry.

the prize will be the invitation to be present at the festival and in the Jury for the following year.

- Dolomythos Award

the prize for the best story or expedition.

the prize will consist of 500 Euro

-Best Photography award

A special award which will receive a kit of products from our sponsors
